

Personal website

The image displays a sequence of 10 wireframe screenshots illustrating the design process of a personal website. The design evolves from a simple navigation bar to a full layout with a header, main content area, and footer.

- Screenshot 1: A simple navigation bar with six links: Home, About me, Academics, Interests, Gallery, and Contact.
- Screenshot 2: The navigation bar is refined, with the 'About me' link highlighted in blue.
- Screenshot 3: The 'Academics' link is highlighted in blue. A large green rectangular placeholder is added to the main content area.
- Screenshot 4: The 'Interests' link is highlighted in blue. A large green rectangular placeholder is added to the main content area.
- Screenshot 5: The 'Gallery' link is highlighted in blue. A large green rectangular placeholder is added to the main content area.
- Screenshot 6: The 'Contact' link is highlighted in blue. A large green rectangular placeholder is added to the main content area.
- Screenshot 7: The 'Home' link is highlighted in blue. A large green rectangular placeholder is added to the main content area.
- Screenshot 8: The 'About me' link is highlighted in blue. A large green rectangular placeholder is added to the main content area.
- Screenshot 9: The 'Academics' link is highlighted in blue. A large green rectangular placeholder is added to the main content area.
- Screenshot 10: The 'Interests' link is highlighted in blue. A large green rectangular placeholder is added to the main content area.

The final design includes a navigation bar, a header with a logo and navigation links, a main content area with a large image placeholder, a sidebar with a list of links, and a footer with a contact form.
